Women's Aid WORKING TO END DOMESTIC ABUSE

SUPPORTING WOMEN, CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE AFFECTED BY DOMESTIC ABUSE

DOMESTIC ABUSE IS A CRIME.

WHAT IS DOMESTIC ABUSE?

Women's Aid define domestic abuse as: "the intentional and persistent physical or emotional abuse of a woman, or of a woman and her children in a way that causes pain, distress or injury."

Domestic abuse involves the abuse of power and control by one person over another, within intimate relationships or family and typically escalates in frequency and severity over time. Domestic abuse isn't just physical and can take many forms like physical, verbal, psychological, economic, sexual and emotional, all with intention of controlling you.

Coercive and controlling behavior is still abuse and is a crime in Northern Ireland. What is happening to you isn't acceptable, never okay and support services are here to help you.
